

COLLECTIVE

February 10-11, 2018

GOD THE FATHER

Rev. Kevin Loo

Romans 8:14-17

Right at the core of COLLECTIVE is _____.

God-centeredness is foundational in how we carry ourselves and how we carry out our tasks.

How we see God affects how we _____ to Him.

Knowing God as our Father is the epi-center, the _____ of our Christian faith - the very place where every conversation and action transpire from.

Why? Because once we know that He is our Father, He is _____ to us.

Our spirit is the real us. This is the place where our belief system is seated. The place where we yearn for purpose in life. The place where we continually seek the question _____.

A healthy spirit is a spirit who knows _____ we are in God.

Therefore, we serve, we give, and we live our lives out of a place of salvation instead of trying to gain salvation.

When you are a child of God, _____ can ever separate you from the love of the Father. That relationship can never change.

1 Peter 1:3-5a

We should come to an understanding that God is the _____ father.

And it is that understanding that shapes how we live and not our understanding of our own father that shapes who God is.
